A little bit of history

The Old Dunnings Mill is a Grade II listed building that was acquired by Harvey's Brewery in 1993. The pub itself dates from 1713, however the name derives from the old corn mill that was constructed at the site some time during the 15th century. Straddling one of the Wealden tributaries of the River Medway, the mill may also have been known as Rowland's Mill and Frampost Mill in its time.

The mill was built on what we now know as the Sunnyside Stream (aka the Dunnings Stream). It was powered by water stored in an adjacent mill pond, which was created by building a bay (dam) across the stream.

The name Dunnings or 'Donnynges' is associated with the mill as this would have been the name of the owner or tenant who constructed it.
